

HELP YOUR GREAT LAKES FISHERY

WHAT'S THE GREAT LAKES ANGLER DIARY?

A citizen science project that collects information from anglers to help paint a clearer picture of the health of Great Lakes fisheries.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- Access the web-based app from a computer or mobile device.
- Use the app to record information from fishing trips. The more you record, the more useful your data will be!
- Complete a short end-of-year survey.

HOW DO I JOIN?

- Sign up by emailing GLanglerdiary@gmail.com.
- Receive a unique Volunteer Number via email.
- Register online at www.GLanglerdiary.org.

FUNDING

Funded by donations from Detroit Area Steelheaders.

WHAT INFORMATION CAN I RECORD?

Record as much or as little as you'd like during the fishing season. Here are some examples of ways you might use the app:

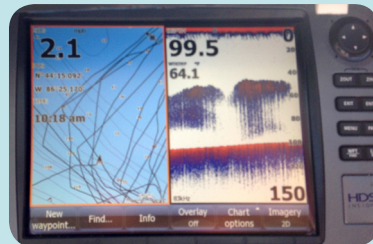

Photo: Joe Foy

Upload bait ball images to show when and where baitfish are found.

Collect fish stomachs for diet study in Lake Huron and Lake Michigan.

Chinook Salmon

Coho Salmon

Steelhead

Brown Trout

Lake Trout

Record catch details for all trout and salmon species, plus cisco, walleye, musky, and sturgeon.

Check Chinook salmon for adipose fin clips to determine % Wild.
