

A Grand Old Bay

By Holly Wolf

The waves of the bay
Change daily from fierce to calm
Green Bay's beauty charms

Mystery levels
Weather causes brand new sights
Year to year we gaze

Kaleidoscope clouds
Bring enchanting sunrises
Each day – a new view

Summer sailors soar
Powerful winds come quickly
Weather watching – key

Winter ice boats fly
Conditions must be perfect
Blades over ice sing

Diamonds shimmering
Ripples and sunshine blending
The waves on the bay

Inspiring refuge
Traveling waterfowl site
Each dawn brings newness

Moonlight adds new joy
Shimmering light vastly glows
Fox freely frolics

Rippling waves shimmer
Light and shadows playing tag
Clouds mix azure sky
